GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF BANGLADESH
BANGLADESH ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

NOTIFICATION

Dhaka, the 15th August, 1985

No. S.R.O. 365-L/85.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Article 19 of the Bangladesh Atomic Energy Commission Order, 1973 (P.O. No. 15 of 1973), the Bangladesh Atomic Energy Commission, with the previous approval of the Government, is pleased to make the following regulations, namely:—

CHAPTER I

1. Short title and application.—(1) These regulations may be called the Bangladesh Atomic Energy Commission Service Regulations, 1985.

(2) They shall apply to all the employees of the Commission, other than work charged, part-time, casual or muster roll and contingent paid employees of the Commission.

2. Definitions.—In these regulations, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:—

- (a) "authority" means the competent authority;
- (b) "appointing authority" means the authority designated by the Commission with the approval of the Government to be such authority for a specified post;
- (c) "competent authority" means the authority designated by the Commission to be the competent authority for the relevant functions;
- (d) "Commission" means the Bangladesh Atomic Energy Commission.

- (c) "deputation" means duty outside the Commission with lien in the substantive post;
- (f) "employee" means an officer or a member of the staff of the Commission;
- (g) "permanent employee" means an employee who has been made permanent by an order of the Commission in a regular post;
- (h) "requisite qualifications" means the qualification specified in the Schedule;
- (i) "Selection Board" means the Selection Board constituted by the Commission in consultation with the Government for the concerned purpose;
- (j) "specified post" means a post specified in the Schedule;
- (k) "Schedule" means the Schedule annexed to these regulations; and
- (l) "temporary employee" means an employee who is not a permanent employee.

CHAPTER II

APPOINTMENT, PROMOTION, SENIORITY, RETIREMENT, ETC.

3. Classification of employees.—(1) The employees shall be divided into four broad classes, namely, Engineering, Scientific, Medicine and General.

(2) Subject to such general and specific order as may be given by the Government to the Commission from time to time, the employees may be divided into such sub-classes and grades as the Commission may determine.

4. Advertisement for recruitment.—All appointments to a specified post shall be made by the appointing authority after the same is advertised in the daily newspaper.

5. Procedure for recruitment.—(1) Subject to other provisions in these regulations, all appointments to specified posts shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Schedule:

Provided that, if no suitable person is available for appointment by manner specified in the Schedule, the specified post may be filled in by recruitment on contract or by deputation with the prior approval of the Government.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in these regulations, no person shall be appointed to a specified post unless he has the requisite qualifications and in the case of direct appointment, he is also within the age limit laid down in the Schedule for that post:

Provided that the requisite qualifications and age limit may, with the approval of the Government, be relaxed to such extent as it may determine considering the circumstances and also in the case of otherwise exceptionally qualified candidates.

(3) All appointments shall be subject to police verification.

(4) No person shall be eligible for appointment to a specified post if he is not a citizen of Bangladesh or permanent resident of, or domiciled in, Bangladesh.

6. Medical examination.—(1) No person shall be appointed without a medical fitness certificate from such medical officer or medical Board as may be required by the Commission.

(2) Where it is found that an employee is inefficient for reasons of infirmity of mind or body, the competent authority may, at any stage, require the employee to undergo a medical examination by such medical officer or medical Board as the Director General of Health Services may appoint on the request of the Commission.

7. Probation.—(1) Employees of all categories shall be on probation for a period of one year.

(2) In the event of an employee failing to show satisfactory progress during his probationary period, the appointing authority may, at its discretion, extend his probationary period by a maximum of one year or dispense with his service by giving a fortnight's notice or by paying a sum equal to the pay for a fortnight without assigning any reason.

8. Fixation of seniority.—(1) Seniority of the employees in their respective post on first appointment or on promotion shall be regulated in the following manner, namely:—

(a) where the appointment is made on the basis of the recommendations of the Selection Board, the seniority shall be fixed by the Selection Board in consideration of result of selection test or examination, if any, and the merit of the candidates in their respective academic examinations and the seniority thus fixed shall be taken as the inter-seniority in a specified post;

(b) in the case of appointment of a single candidate, the seniority shall be counted from the date of his joining.

(2) The first appointment referred to in sub-regulation (1) shall mean appointment to a regular post.

(3) The provision of this regulation shall not affect the seniority of employees fixed by the competent authority before the commencement of these regulations.

9. Promotion.—The criterion for promotion to a specified post shall be merit-cum-seniority and no person shall be eligible for promotion unless he has the satisfactory records of service.

10. Termination of service.—The services of a temporary employee may be terminated by giving one month's notice or by paying a sum equal to the pay for one month by the appointing authority without assigning any reason.

11. Resignation.—(1) A permanent employee shall not resign from his post without giving three calendar months' notice in writing, failing which he shall be liable to pay the Commission a sum equal to his pay for three months.

(2) A temporary employee shall not resign without giving one month's notice in writing of his intention to do so, failing which he shall be liable to pay to the Commission a sum equal to his pay for one month.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulations (1) and (2), an employee shall continue to perform his duties till his resignation is accepted and he is released from duty.

(4) The appointing authority may, in the interest of the Commission, refuse to accept the resignation of any employee or accept resignation on such conditions as may be decided by such authority.

12. Retirement.—Any employee shall retire from service on the completion of the fifty seventh year of his age.

13. Employment on contract.—The Commission may, if it is of opinion that it is in the public interest so to do, employ an employee on contract basis in accordance with the provisions of the Public Servants (Retirement) Act, 1974 (XII of 1974), and such extension shall be subject to such conditions, if any, as may be prescribed by the Government.

14. Optional retirement.—An employee may opt to retire from service at any time after he has completed twenty-five years of service by giving notice in writing to the appointing authority at least 30 days prior to the date of his intended retirement:

Provided that such option once exercised shall be final and shall not be permitted to be modified or withdrawn.

15. Employee not entitled to retirement benefits in certain cases.—If any judicial proceedings instituted by the Government or the Commission or any departmental proceedings are pending against an employee at the time of his retirement, he shall not be entitled to any pension or other retirement benefits till the determination of such proceedings.

16. Posting and transfer.—The Commission may transfer an employee to any office located in Bangladesh.

17. Service record.—(1) A record of service of each employee shall be maintained in the form prescribed by the Commission.

(2) A confidential report on the work and conduct during each calendar year for all employees shall be written in the last month of the calendar year in the form prescribed by the Commission.

(3) An employee shall have no access to his confidential report. He shall, however, be informed of adverse remarks in order to give him an opportunity to explain his position or to correct himself.

CHAPTER III

PAY, ALLOWANCE, MEDICAL FACILITIES, ETC.

18. Scale of Pay.—(1) The scales of pay of the employees of the Commission shall be those as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time.

(2) The persons holding posts of CSO, PSO, SSO, SO and their equivalents shall, as far as practicable be allowed the same scale of pay as are admissible to Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors and Lecturer of Universities.

19. Pay on promotion.—On promotion from one grade to another, the pay of an employee will normally be fixed at the stage in the higher grade which is next above his pay in the lower grade. Any loss of pay shall be protected by granting increments.

20. Special Pay or Allowance.—Special pay or allowance may be allowed to an employee by the competent authority considering the unhealthiness, remoteness or other special characteristics of the place in which duty is performed and also considering the arduous nature of work. The rate of such pay and allowance shall be determined by the Commission in consultation with the Government.

21. Increment.—(1) In case of exceptionally qualified candidates, the Commission may allow advance increment, not exceeding three increments, to an employee on his first appointment to a specified post.

(2) An increment shall be drawn as a matter of course unless it is withheld by the competent authority by expressed order in writing. If the increment is withheld, the withholding authority shall state the period for which it is withheld.

(3) Where an efficiency bar is prescribed in a time scale, the increment next above the bar shall not be given to the employee without the specific sanction of the competent authority. Such sanction shall be based not on the mere absence of an unsatisfactory report but on the positive statement of the reporting officer that the service of the employee concerned had been such as to justify the crossing of the bar.

22. Additional charge allowance.—An employee holding additional charge of one or more higher or equal posts in addition to his own post shall be allowed by the appointing authority charge allowance as per Government rule in this behalf.

23. Conveyance allowance, etc.—(1) Conveyance allowance may be paid to the employees at such rates and on such conditions as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time for its own officers and employees.

(2) If a transport cannot be provided to an employee who is entitled to it for official work outside, he may be entitled to reimbursement of conveyance charges at rates determined by the Commission in consultation with the Government from time to time.

24. House rent allowance.—House rent allowance may be paid to the employees at such rate and on such conditions as may be determined by the Commission in consultation with the Government from time to time.

25. Washing allowance.—Washing Allowance may be paid to such employees of the Commission who have been supplied liveries at such rate and on such conditions as may be determined by the Commission in consultation with the Government from time to time.

26. Overtime allowance.—The Commission may, at such rates and subject to such conditions as may be considered appropriate grant overtime allowance to such employees as may be decided by it with due regard to Government instructions, if any, in this behalf.

27. Rest and recreation allowance.—An employee of the Commission may be allowed rest and recreation allowance in such manner and on such scale as may be determined by the Government from time to time.

28. Non-practising allowance.—If a Medical Officer in employment of the Commission is not allowed to do private practices, he shall, in lieu thereof, be granted non-practising allowance at such rates and on such conditions as may be determined by the Commission in consultation with the Government from time to time.

29. Honorarium.—The Commission may grant an honorarium to an employee as remuneration for extra work performed, provided it is of such outstanding merit or occasional in character and also so laborious that it justifies special award.

30. Medical facilities.—The employees may be allowed medical facilities on such scales and terms and conditions as the Government may determine from time to time.

31. Residence facilities.—The Commission may provide residential facilities to its employees on such scales and terms and conditions as may be determined by the Commission from time to time after obtaining approval of the Government.

32. Uniforms.—The Commission may supply uniforms free of cost to such of its employees as may be determined by it from time to time.

CHAPTER IV

DEPUTATION AND TRAINING

33. Deputation.—(1) The Commission may depute an employee for service with the Government or with any autonomous, semi-autonomous organisation or for service in a foreign country if the Commission thinks that it is a fit case for such deputation:

Provided that in case of deputation outside the country prior approval of the Government shall be obtained.

(2) The following conditions will govern the cases of deputation:—

- (a) for every 4 years of service, one year of deputation may be allowed:
 Provided that the period of deputation shall not, unless relaxed by the Commission under special circumstances at its discretion, exceed three years at one time;
- (b) the deputation shall commence from the date the employee relinquishes the charge of his duties in the Commission;
- (c) for the period of deputation, the employees shall not be entitled to any salary from the Commission;
- (d) for the period of deputation, the employee shall pay his share of provident fund contribution and shall also pay dues on account of group insurance, benevolent fund and any other fund constituted by the Commission at the rates as may be determined in this behalf;
- (e) the period of deputation shall be counted towards increment of his pay in the Commission;
- (f) the period of deputation shall not be counted towards earning of leave in the Commission and leave previously earned shall not be allowed during the period of deputation but in exceptional cases, however, on compassionate and medical grounds, an employee may, at the discretion of the Commission, be granted such leave as may be at his credit in the Commission on condition that no leave salary would be paid in foreign exchange.
- (g) the Commission shall not be responsible for any expenditure for the employee or members of his family for medical examination, travels, tours, etc. during the period of deputation.
- (h) before proceeding to deputation, the employee shall furnish bond or undertaking in the form prescribed by the Commission to the effect that if he fails to return and report back to the Commission within the specified time, he shall be liable to such disciplinary action including termination of, or dismissal from service, as the Commission may deem fit.

34. Training.—The terms and conditions of training of the employees shall be as follows:—

- (1) preliminary selection of employees for nomination against offers of training facilities allocated by the Government or other agencies shall be made by the Commission according to its requirement. After selection of candidates by such Selection Committee as the Commission may constitute in this behalf, the Commission shall recommend the names of the candidates to the Government for approval.
- (2) if the course of studies is considered to be in the interest of the Commission, it may, with the approval of the Government, permit an employee, not above the rank of Senior Scientific Officer, when going abroad for the first time for academic studies leading to M.Sc., M.S., M. Phil. or Ph.D. on his self-arranged Fellowship, Assistantship, etc. and such training shall be considered as training within the meaning of training under this regulation.

- (3) No employee shall be nominated for the second or subsequent training unless he has put in such minimum years of satisfactory service with the Commission as may be fixed by the Government from time to time after his return from previous training of more than six months' duration:

Provided that the Government may relax this condition under special circumstances depending on the exigencies of work.

- (4) Subject to requirement and availability of financial support, the Commission may agree to maximum period of training as follows:—
- (a) Academic Studies—
- (i) For Ph.D. or equivalent course—Normally not more than 4 years, in exceptional cases, however, the Commission may, with the approval of Government, agree to a maximum of 5 years and in that case, deputation pay shall not be allowed for more than the period as may be determined by the Government.
- (ii) For M.S. or equivalent course—Not exceeding 2 years.
- (iii) For Diploma or equivalent course—Not exceeding one year.
- (b) Specialized Training, Job Training, Specialised Course etc.—Duration of such training or courses shall be determined by the Commission according to its requirements.
- (c) Post-Doctoral work—Not exceeding 2 years.

35. Obligation of trainees.—(1) All trainees will be required to fulfil the following conditions, namely:—

- (a) Before proceeding abroad, the trainees shall—
- (i) sign a declaration in the form prescribed by the Government,
- (ii) execute a surety bond in the form prescribed by the Government, and
- (iii) complete any other formality which the Commission may require of them.
- (b) while on training, the trainees shall submit periodical progress reports in the manner as may be directed by the Commission.
- (c) The overseas trainees shall return to Bangladesh immediately on the expiry of the Fellowship, Scholarship, Assistantship or approved duration of training, whichever is earlier.

Explanation:—In this regulation, "training" includes academic studies leading to degree, diploma, scholarship, fellowship, research or visiting assistantship, etc. under any technical assistance programme or any other agency financing the training programme wholly or partly.

(2) Failure to comply with any of the obligations mentioned under sub-regulation (1), shall render the employee liable to disciplinary action including termination or dismissal from service, recovery of bond money, cancellation of passport, etc. as the Commission may decide.

36. Entitlement from the Commission while on training.—All trainees while on training programme will be entitled to the following benefits from the Commission for the duration of the training unless otherwise specified by the Commission:—

- (a) the period of training shall be treated as on duty;
- (b) full pay and annual increments for the periods in training shall be allowed;
- (c) medical facilities will be admissible in such manner and scale as may be prescribed by the Commission from time to time to the members of the trainee's family if they are in Bangladesh; the trainee shall not, however, be entitled to any medical facilities during his stay abroad;
- (d) accommodation allotted by the Commission may be allowed to retain if family continues to stay in the same station for a period of 1 year on usual terms which term may be extended up to 2 years on special circumstances; for any period exceeding this, an employee shall be charged an excess rent to be determined by the Commission; if, however, the family stays in hired accommodation in the place of posting of the trainee, then house rent allowance at usual rate will be admissible, so long as the family continues to stay in the hired accommodation.

CHAPTER V

LEAVE AND JOINING TIME

37. Application for leave.—(1) All applications for leave shall be addressed to and be sanctioned by the competent authority as specified by the Commission from time to time.

(2) The first day of an employee's leave shall be the working day next after the day on which he makes over charge and the last day of the leave shall be the working day immediately preceding the day on which he reports back to duty.

38. Rates, calculation, etc. of leave.—(1) Leave on average pay shall be earned at the rate of 1/11th of the period spent on duty and the maximum that may be accumulated shall be 4 months. Any period earned in excess of 4 months shall be credited to a separate item in the leave account form prescribed by the Commission from which leave may be allowed on average pay on medical ground or for the purpose of pilgrimage or education.

(2) The amount of leave that may be taken at one time shall not exceed four months. This limit may be raised to six months when leave in excess of four months is taken on medical grounds or for the purpose of pilgrimage or education.

(3) Leave on half average pay shall be earned at the rate of 1/12th of the period spent on duty and accumulation of such leave shall be without limit.

(4) It shall be permissible to convert leave so allowed into leave on average pay on production of medical certificate up to a maximum of twelve months. This conversion will be allowed at rate of one day of leave on average pay for two days on leave on half average pay.

39. Payment of salary in lieu of earned leave, etc.—(1) Leave salary shall not be admissible to an employee in lieu of earned leave when he is dismissed or discharged on account of misconduct or when he has left his work without notice.

(2) Leave salary in lieu of earned leave due to an employee shall be payable in the event of his death, or in lieu of so much of earned leave as may have been refused in writing during service at the time of leaving after due notice, or on retirement.

(3) The Commission may grant leave to an employee on deputation from other organisation under intimation to his parent department provided leave is due to him.

(4) Earned leave may be encashed by an employee up to a maximum of 15 (fifteen) days every year if he surrenders earned leave on average pay for that period.

40. Leave not due.—(1) Save in the case of leave preparatory to retirement, leave not due may be granted on half average pay up to a maximum of twelve months during the whole service if it is on medical grounds.

(2) When an employee returns from leave which was not due and was debited against his leave accounts, no leave on half average pay shall become due to him until the expiry of a fresh period spent on duty sufficient to earn a credit of leave equal to the period of leave which he took before it was due.

41. Leave salary.—Leave salary shall be calculated as per rule applicable to Government employees.

42. Extraordinary leave.—(1) Extraordinary leave may be granted to an employee in circumstances when no other leave is admissible to the employee or when other leave is admissible but the employee concerned applies in writing for the grant of extraordinary leave.

(2) Except in the case of a permanent employee, the duration of extraordinary leave shall not exceed 3 months or 12 months on any one occasion, the longer period being admissible, subject to such condition as the Commission may, by general or special orders, prescribe and when the employee concerned is undergoing medical treatment by a qualified specialist or a Civil Surgeon, or when the Commission is satisfied that the employee is unable to resume duty for reasons beyond his control.

(3) The authority empowered to grant leave may commute retrospectively the period of absence without leave into extraordinary leave.

(4) Extraordinary leave may be granted in combination with or in continuation of leave of any other kind admissible to the employees and the authority may, commute retrospectively period of absence without leave into extraordinary leave.

(5) No pay and allowance shall be admissible during the period of extraordinary leave and the period spent on such leave shall not count for increment, provided that in a case where the Commission is satisfied that the leave was taken for any cause beyond the employee's control, it may direct that the period of extraordinary leave be counted for increment.

43. Maternity leave.—(1) Maternity leave, which shall be on average pay and not debitable to the leave account, may be granted to an employee for a maximum period of three months at a time.

(2) Leave of any other kind admissible to the employees may be granted at the discretion of competent authority in combination with or in continuation of maternity leave if the request for its grant is supported by a registered medical practitioner.

(3) The Commission may not grant maternity leave to any employee on more than three occasions during her service in the Commission.

44. Special disability leave.—

(a) Special disability leave may be granted by the Commission to an employee who is disabled by injury inflicted or caused in, or in consequence of, the due performance of his official duty.

(b) Special disability leave shall not be granted unless the disability manifested itself within three months of the occurrence to which it is attributed, and the person disabled acted with due promptitude in bringing it to notice:

Provided that if the Commission is satisfied as to the cause of the disability, such leave may be granted in cases where the disability manifested itself more than three months after the occurrence of its cause.

(c) The period of special disability leave granted shall be such as it shall not be extended except on the certificate of a Medical Board and shall in no case exceed twenty-four months.

(d) Special disability leave may be combined with leave of any other kind.

(e) Special disability leave may be granted more than once if the disability is aggravated or reproduced in similar circumstances at a later date but not more than twenty four months of such leave shall be granted in consequence of any one disability.

(f) Special disability leave shall be counted as duty in calculating service for gratuity only, if admissible and shall not be debited against the leave account.

(g) Leave salary during special disability leave shall be equal to—

(i) average pay, for the first four months of any period of such leave including a period of such leave granted under clause (e) of this regulation; and

(ii) half average pay, for the remaining period of any such leave, or at the employee's option, average pay for a period not exceeding the period for which leave on average pay would otherwise be admissible to him.

45. Quarantine leave.—Quarantine leave is leave of absence from duty necessitated by orders not attend to office in consequence of the presence of infectious diseases in the family or house-hold of an employee. Such leave may be granted by the head of the office on the certificate of a Medical or

Public Health Officer for a period not exceeding 21 days or, in exceptional circumstances, up to 30 days. Any leave necessary for quarantine purposes in excess of this period shall be treated as ordinary leave. Quarantine leave may also be granted where necessary in continuation of other leave subject to the maximum period of leave admissible under these regulations. No substitute should be appointed in place of an employee absent on quarantine leave. An employee on quarantine leave is not treated as absent from duty and he will get normal pay.

46. Leave preparatory to retirement.—An employee shall be entitled to leave preparatory to retirement in accordance with the same procedure and in the same scale and on such terms and conditions as a Government Servant is entitled to.

47. Combination of holiday with leave.—When the day immediately preceding the day on which an employee's leave begins or immediately following the date on which his leave expires, is a holiday or one of series of holidays, the employee may leave his station at the close of the day before or return to it on the day after such holiday, or series of holidays, provided that prior sanction for the same has been obtained.

48. Leave not right.—Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right, and the Commission shall have the right to refuse leave when such refusal appears necessary for the exigencies of services.

49. Overstay of leave.—An employee, who overstays his leave except under circumstances beyond his control for which he must render satisfactory explanation, shall not draw any emoluments for the period for which he overstays. He shall also be liable to action for breach of discipline, and the period of overstay may constitute as break in service unless regularised by the competent authority.

50. Casual leave.—The total number of days for which casual leave shall be admissible in a calendar shall be such as may be determined by the Government for Government Servants.

51. Study leave, etc.—The employees of the Commission may be granted study leave to enable him to study scientific, technical and other like subjects on such terms and conditions as the Commission may determine if it is satisfied that the study will be useful for his service under the Commission.

52. Joining time.—(1) The employees of the Commission, on transfer from one station to another, shall be allowed joining time as follows—

- (a) six days for preparation, plus;
- (b) period to cover the actual journey by air, railway, steamer, motor car or any other mode as may be approved by the competent authority;

Provided that Sunday or a closed holiday shall not count as a day for the purpose of the calculation of joining time under these regulations.

(2) The Commission may, in special circumstances, reduce or extend the period of joining time admissible under sub-regulation(1).

(3) If an employee is transferred from one station to another in the same post or is appointed to a new post involving change of station, his joining time shall be calculated from the old station or from the place in which he received the order of appointment or transfer, whichever is more convenient to the employee.

(4) If an employee takes leave while in transit for joining from one post to another, the period which has elapsed since he handed over charges of his old post shall be included in his leave, unless the leave is taken on medical certificate.

(5) The joining time admissible under these regulations shall unless the Commission for special reason otherwise orders be calculated by the route which travellers ordinarily use.

CHAPTER VI GENERAL CONDUCT

53. Fidelity and secrecy.—(1) Every employee shall maintain strict secrecy regarding the Commission's affairs and the affairs of its establishments and shall not communicate directly or indirectly to any person information which has come into his possession in the course of his duties whether from official sources or otherwise, unless required to do so by law or directed by a superior officer in the discharge of his duties.

(2) Every employee shall before joining service, sign a declaration of fidelity and secrecy in the prescribed form.

54. Political activity, etc, prohibited.—No employee shall bring or attempt to bring political or other outside influences to bear on any authority of the Commission in support of any claim made by him in connection with his employment, promotion, increment or for any other personal gain.

55. Absence from duty.—No employee shall absent himself from his duties, nor leave his station without the permission of the competent authority.

56. Prohibition on acceptance of gifts, etc.—(1) No employee shall accept any gift, gratuity or reward from any other employee of the Commission or agencies likely to have dealings with the Commission directly or indirectly, on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person or permit any member of his family to do so.

(2) No employee shall, without the prior sanction of the Commission in writing, undertake any employment within the country or outside and the Commission may, in its discretion at any time, require him to abandon any work which in its opinion is undesirable in the interest of Commission's Services.

57. Grounds for penalty.—Where an employee, in the opinion of the authority,—

- (1) is inefficient, or has ceased to be efficient, whether by reason of infirmity of mind or body or otherwise, and is not likely to recover his efficiency; or

DB

- (2) is guilty for negligence to his duty; or
- (3) is guilty of misconduct; or
- (4) is corrupt, or may reasonably be considered corrupt, because—
  - (a) he is, or any of his dependents or any other person through him or on his behalf, is in possession of pecuniary resources or property disproportionate to his known sources of income, or
  - (b) he has assumed a style of living beyond his ostensible means, or
- (5) is engaged, or is reasonably suspected of being engaged, in subversive activities, or is reasonably suspected of being associated with others engaged in subversive activities, and whose retention in service considered prejudicial to national security, the authority may, subject to the provisions of sub-regulation (3) of regulation 58 impose on him one or more penalties.

58. Penalties.—(1) There shall be the following penalties:—

- (a) Censure;
- (b) the withholding of increment or promotion, including stoppage at efficiency bar, for a specified period;
- (c) recovery from pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Commission by negligence or breach of orders;
- (d) reduction to a lower post or time scale, or to a lower stage in a time scale;
- (e) compulsory retirement;
- (f) removal from service;
- (g) dismissal from service.

(2) Removal does not, but dismissal does, disqualify an employee from future employment in the Commission.

(3) For misconduct any penalty in sub-regulation (1) may be imposed, but the penalties to be ordinarily imposed for inefficiency and negligence shall be those set out in clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of sub-regulation (1) and for corruption or subversion shall be those set out in clauses (e), (f) and (g) of that sub-regulation.

59. Inquiry procedure on subversion.—When an employee is to be proceeded against under clause (5) of regulation 57, the competent authority—

- (a) may, by an order in writing, require the employee concerned to proceed on such leave as may be admissible to him, and from such date as may be specified in the order;

- (b) shall, by an order in writing, inform him of the action proposed to be taken in regard to him and the grounds of that action; and
- (c) shall give him a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against that action before an Enquiry Committee to be constituted with three members or the Commission to enquire into the charge:

Provided that no such opportunity shall be given where the authority is satisfied that in the interest of the security of Bangladesh, or any part thereof, it is not expedient to give such opportunity.

60. Enquiry procedure in cases of negligence, inefficiency, misconduct and corruption.—(1) When an employee is to be proceeded against under clauses (1), (2), (3) or (4) of regulation 57, he shall be called upon to submit explanation in writing to the competent authority within seven days as to why disciplinary action should not be taken against him for the alleged offence.

(2) When the explanation of the employee is not found satisfactory, the competent authority shall frame a charge and call upon him to submit a written defence within such period as may be specified in this behalf, being not less than seven days and not more than fourteen days, stating whether he desires to be heard in person.

(3) The competent authority shall appoint an officer senior in rank to the accused to conduct an enquiry into the charges, who shall submit a report, after giving the employee a personal hearing, if so desired by him, within such period as may be determined by the competent authority.

(4) The competent authority shall consider the written statement submitted by the employee in his defence, the report of the Enquiry Officer and other circumstances, if any, and impose such penalty as it may deem proper in the circumstances of the case:

Provided that before imposition of penalty of compulsory retirement, dismissal, removal or reduction to a lower post, the delinquent employee shall be given second opportunity to show cause against the penalty proposed to be imposed.

(5) The competent authority shall take decision by imposing penalty and shall communicate the same by an order in writing to the employee concerned.

(6) The proceedings under this regulation shall be completed within three months from the date of framing charge against an employee.

61. Procedure for disposal of a case, where an employee has been convicted by a court of law.—(1) When an employee is convicted by a court of law on charge of a criminal offence, the competent authority may dismiss or remove him from the service of the Commission or reduce him in rank, or impose any other penalty upon him without the procedure laid down in these regulations or may not impose any penalty, if the competent authority decides that the offence for which he is convicted is not liable to disciplinary action under these regulations.

(2) Any penalty imposed upon an employee under sub-regulation (1) shall take effect from the date of communication of the order of imposition of the penalty to the employee and not from the date of his conviction or suspension.

62. Summary proceedings.—(1) An employee found guilty of—

- (a) habitual late attendance.
- (b) Leaving place of duty without permission.
- (c) wilful misrepresentation or suppression of fact;
- (d) misbehaviour with other employees or members of the public; or
- (e) unnecessary delay in disposal of files and records, shall be called upon to submit explanation to the competent authority within seven days as to why disciplinary action should not be taken against him for the alleged offence.

(2) If the competent authority is, on such enquiry as it may deem necessary, satisfied that the employee is guilty of any of the offences mentioned in sub-regulation (1), it shall impose upon him any of the minor penalties specified in these regulations.

63. Appeal, etc.—(1) An employee shall have the right to appeal once only against an order imposing any penalty except censure to the authority next superior to the authority imposing the penalty, and where the penalty is imposed by order of the Commission, there shall ordinarily lie no appeal but the Commission may review its own order suo motu or on receipt of representation from the employee concerned. The Government may entertain an appeal against an order of the Commission if it has reasons to believe that a violation of law or gross injustice has been done.

(2) Every appeal shall comply with the following requirements, namely:—

- (a) it shall contain all material statements and grounds relied upon and shall be complete in all respects;
- (b) it shall specify the relief desired;
- (c) it shall be submitted through proper channel;
- (d) it shall not be couched in improper language; and
- (e) it shall be submitted within thirty days from the date of receipt of the order of penalty.

(3) An appeal may be withheld by the authority imposing the penalty, if—

- (a) it does not comply with the requirements of sub-regulation (2);
- (b) it deals with matters which are not relevant to the case;
- (c) it does not disclose any new point or circumstances which afford grounds for reconsideration; or
- (d) it is addressed to an authority to which no appeal lies under this regulations.

(4) In every case in which an appeal is withheld, the appellant and the appellate authority shall be informed of the fact and the reason thereof:

Provided that an appeal withheld under sub-regulation (3) may be re-submitted at any time within thirty days from the date on which the appellant has been informed of withholding of the appeal in a form which complies with the provisions of sub-regulation (2).

(5) The appellate authority shall examine—

- (a) Whether the facts on which the order of penalty is based have been established; and
- (b) Whether the penalty is adequate, inadequate or excessive, and after such examination shall pass such order as it considers proper.

(6) An appellate authority may call for the records of any case including an appeal withheld by an authority subordinate to it and may pass such orders thereon as it considers fit under the provisions of these regulations.

(7) Nothing in these regulations shall preclude the Commission from revising, whether on its own motion or otherwise, any order passed by an authority subordinate to it in exercise of powers conferred on such authority by these regulations.

64. Reinstatement, etc.—When an employee who was dismissed, removed or suspended is reinstated, the employee shall be entitled to the full pay to which he would have been entitled had he not been dismissed, removed or suspended.

65. Bar to resign or retire to employee under suspension, etc.—An employee under suspension or prosecution on charge of offences under these regulations shall not resign or retire at his own option from service until the case is finalised.

66. Declaration of assets, etc.—(1) Every employee shall, at the time of entering Commission's service, make a declaration to the Commission through the usual channel, of all immovable and movable properties, including shares, certificates, securities, insurance policies and jewellery belonging to or held by him or a member of his family and such declaration shall state the district within which the property is situated, showing separately individual items of jewellery exceeding Tk. 25,000 (Taka twenty-five thousand) in value and give such further information as the authority may by general or special order, require.

(2) An employee of the Commission shall, as and when he is so required by the Commission by a general or special order, furnish information as to his assets disclosing liquid assets and all other properties, immovable and movable, including shares, certificates, insurance policies, jewellery.

CHAPTER VII
ADVANCES AND LOANS TO EMPLOYEES

67. Sanction of advance for house building and purchase of car, etc.—House building advance and advance of purchase of motor car, etc. may be sanctioned by the competent authority to the employees provided budget provision for such advances exist and fund is available.

68. Recovery of advance, etc.—(1) The amount of the advance under this chapter to be recovered monthly shall be fixed in whole Taka except in the case of last instalment when the remaining balance including any fraction of a taka shall be recovered. If the employee proceeds on leave without pay, he shall pay these instalments in cash. If an employee fails to pay any such instalments, the arrears of instalments falling due during period or periods of leave without pay shall be recovered in lump-sum from the first disbursement of pay or allowances which may become due to the employee at the end of such leave.

(2) Simple interest at the rate of 10½% per annum shall be charged on all advance granted under this chapter and when an advance is drawn in more than one instalment, the rate of interest recoverable shall be determined with reference to the date on which the first instalment is drawn. The interest will be calculated on the balances outstanding on the last day of such month. The amount of interest will be recovered in one or more instalments and the amount of each such instalment shall not exceed the rate of which the principal was recovered. Recovery of interest will commence from the month following that in which the whole of the principal has been repaid.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, the full amount of any advance inclusive of interest must be recovered before the employee taking the advance reaches the age of superannuation; and if the rate of monthly recovery normally applicable is insufficient, it shall be increased so that recovery is completed before superannuation.

(4) The Commission may, at the request of the employee, permit recovery of any advance in a number of instalments smaller than those normally admissible.

69. House building advance.—The following procedure shall be followed in respect of house building advance to all permanent employee of the Commission, namely:—

- (a) Advance equivalent to 24 months' pay may be allowed for purchase of house, construction of house and purchase of land for residential purposes.
- (b) Advance and its interest shall be recovered from pay in equal instalments not exceeding 120 instalments. Recovery is to begin from the 19th issue of pay after drawal of the first instalment of advance.
- (c) No employee shall be granted a second advance while any portion of previous advance with interest accrued thereon is outstanding against him:

Provided that when an employee is granted the advance for an amount less than the amount he applied for according to his entitlement due to non-availability of funds or due to any other reason, he may be granted a second advance for an amount up to the balance of his entitlement irrespective of whether the earlier advance with interest accrued thereon is outstanding or not.

- (d) Advance for repair of house equivalent to 12 months' pay may be allowed which is recoverable in 60 instalments. Recovery is to begin from 13th issue of pay after drawal of the first instalment of advance.

- (c) Advance may also be allowed to temporary employees who have rendered more than 5 years' continuous service on submission of surety bond from two permanent employees of not below his rank. The sureties of two permanent employees can be released when the house has been built and mortgaged to the Commission. The surety should be of such person who would not retire before the house is built and mortgaged. The surety bond should be furnished by the temporary employees in such manner as may be prescribed by the Commission.
- (f) All advance under this regulation must be bonafide required for the purpose of purchasing or building or repairing houses for the personal residences of the employees concerned and unutilised amount of advanced money shall be refunded to the Commission.
- (g) The advance shall be drawn by instalments, the amount of a each instalment being such as is likely to be required for expenditure in the next three months. Satisfactory evidence should be produced to show that the amount of the instalment has been actually utilized for the purpose for which it was drawn before the next instalment is paid.
- (h) The house built together with land shall be mortgaged to the Commission, which will be released on repayment of the full amount with interest due. The mortgage bond will be executed in forms prescribed by the Commission.
- (i) The applicant for advance for constructing a house must satisfy the sanctioning authority regarding his title to the land upon which the house is or is proposed to be built. The applicant's title to the property shall be examined by the sanctioning authority before the advance is granted and in cases where there is any doubt as to the validity of that title, the Revenue and Registration authority or if technical legal advice is necessary, the legal adviser, may be consulted. It should be seen that the applicant has undisputed title to the land on which it is proposed to build the house and there will be no legal obstacle to the property being mortgaged to the Commission.
- (j) If the land for construction of the house has been allotted by a co-operative society, the advances on account of development charges will be allowed when the appropriate authorities demand these charges from the employee concerned. At the time of the drawal of such advances, the employee must sign an agreement as prescribed by the Commission. He would be required, as soon as it is possible for the society to allot the land to him, to produce original document showing that the land has actually been allotted to him. When he has been allotted land and wishes to draw further advances for the construction of a house, advance will be allowed up to a maximum of 25% of the total house building advance admissible in his case. At the time of drawal of this instalment, he must be called upon to execute an agreement and to complete at least the plinth. As soon as practicable and in any case, not later than three months from the date of the drawal of this instalment. He must produce a certificate from the Engineer appointed by the Commission for the purpose to the effect that the plinth has been completed. Further instalments of advance may be paid after execution of a mortgage deed in the form as prescribed by the Commission.

- (k) The employee should sign an agreement in the prescribed form at the time of taking an advance for the purchase of land the amount should not exceed that what is required for the purpose. A mortgage deed as prescribed by the Commission should be executed before any further advance is drawn for the purpose of constructing the house.

- (1) Motor car advance may be given only to employees who are in receipt of pay of Tk. 2,500 and above and who are posted to bigger towns, such as Dhaka, Chittagong and Rajshahi and are likely to remain at those stations for not less than 2 years from the date of sanction of the advance.
- (2) The total amount to be advanced for the purchase of motor car shall not exceed 20 months' pay or the anticipated price, whichever is less. If the actual price paid is less than the advance taken, the balance shall be forthwith refunded to the Commission.
- (3) Recovery shall be made by deducting monthly in ninety-sixth equal instalments from the pay of the employee. It will commence from the first issue of pay after advance is taken. If the loanee reaches the age of superannuation within a time less than 96 months, the instalments shall be fixed in equal monthly instalments to recover the full repayment of loan before his retirement.
- (4) The previous sanction of the Commission is necessary to the sale of the car purchased with the aid of an advance which with interest accrued has not been fully repaid. If an employee wishes to transfer such a car to another employee of similar status who performs the duties of a kind that renders the possession of a motor car necessary, the Commission may permit the transfer of the liability attached to the car, to the transferee on the same terms and conditions as were applicable to the transferee.
- (5) An employee who draws, an advance in Bangladesh for the purchase of motor car shall complete his negotiations for the purchase of the car and pay finally for the car within one month from the date on which he draws the advance, failing such completion and payment, the full amount of the advance drawn, with interest thereon shall be refunded to the Commission. This condition should always be mentioned in the letter sanctioning such advances. At the time of drawing the advance, the employee will be required to execute an agreement as prescribed by the Commission and on completing the purchase, he will further be required to execute a mortgage bond as prescribed by the Commission hypothecating the car to the Commission as security for the advance. The cost price of the car purchased should be entered in the schedule of specifications attached to the mortgage bond.

- (6) In the order sanctioning the advance, the competent authority will specifically mention that the agreement in the form prescribed by the Commission has been signed by the employee drawing the advance and it has been examined and found to be in order. The competent authority should see that the car is purchased within one month from the date on which the advance is drawn and should submit the mortgage bond promptly to Director, (Finance and Accounts) of the Commission for examination before final record.
- (7) The form of mortgage bond executed by an employee drawing an advance in Bangladesh for the purchase of motor car shall provide for comprehensive insurance against full loss by fire or accident or theft. Insurance policies at a reduced rate of premium shall, however, be accepted as adequate in case, where—
- (a) the owner of the car undertakes to meet the first Tk. 250 of a claim preferred against an insurance Company in the event of an accident;
  - (b) the car is not insured against accident for any reason of the year during which it is not in use but is stored in a garage; and
  - (c) insurance effected within one month from the date of purchase of the car.
- (8) On expiry of one month's time after the advance has been received by the employee, the Director (Finance and Accounts) of the Commission will obtain from the employee concerned a letter in a form prescribed by the Commission to the motor insurance Company, with which the motor car is insured. The Director (Finance and Accounts) of the Commission will himself forward the letter to the Company and obtain their acknowledgement. In the case of insurance effected on annual basis, this process should be repeated every year until the advance has been fully repaid to the Commission.

72. Advance for purchase of motor-cycle.—A competent authority may sanction an advance to its employees for purchase of a motor cycle subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (1) That the amount of the advance does not exceed eight months' pay of the employee or the anticipated price of the motor cycle, whichever is less. If the actual price paid is less than the advance taken, the balance should be forthwith refunded to the Commission.
- (2) The provisions of clauses (3) and (4) of regulation 71 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the advance for purchase of motor cycle.

109. Pension.—If an employee retires, resigns or is discharged after completing qualifying service of 10 years or more, pension and retirement benefit shall be paid to him or, in case of his death, his family at the rates prescribed by the Government from time to time.

110. Invalid pension.—If any employee is disabled permanently due to bodily or mental infirmity while in the service of the Commission, he or, in case of his death, his family, shall be entitled to the usual gratuity or pension benefit as per these regulations.

111. Family pension.—(1) In the event of death of an employee before retirement but after completion of a qualifying service of 10 years or more his family will get the pension for a period of 10 years at the normal rate of pension as per these regulations.

(2) In the event of the death of an employee after retirement, but before the expiry of 10 years after retirement, his family will be entitled to the benefit of pension as per regulations above for the unexpired portion of the period of 10 years counted from the date of retirement of the employee.

112. Surrender of pension.—Every employee who has rendered qualifying service for a period of ten years or more and is eligible for a pension shall have the right to opt for a lump sum benefit according to the rates prescribed by the Government by surrendering up to a maximum of one-half of the amount of the pension admissible to him under these regulations. Such option will have to be exercised by him in writing to the Commission at any time before he retires, and the lump sum benefit shall be paid to him on retirement or to his family on his death before retirement.

113. Definition of family.—“family” for the purpose of pension and journey under these regulations means :—

- (a) spouse or spouses of the employee ; and
- (b) Children of the employee :

Provided that the Commission may, in special cases, accept any other person not falling under any of the above categories as a member of the family of an employee.

114. Pension on dismissal.—No pension shall be granted to an employee dismissed from service unless otherwise decided by Commission.

115. Nomination.—Every employee of the Commission entitled to pension and other benefits under these regulations shall be required to make a nomination to the Commission forthwith after promulgation of these regulations or on new appointment in the prescribed proforma.

116. Optional retirement.—Every employee of the Commission entitled to pension shall have the right to retire after completing 25 years of qualifying service :

Provided that the Commission, may in any special case on the ground of essential service, require an employee to complete his service up to the age of superannuation.

117. Payment.—The payment of pension and other benefits under this Chapter will be made according to the procedure as may be prescribed by the Commission from time to time.

118. General Provident Fund.—The Commission shall establish a General (Non-contributory) Provident Fund for its employees and frame rules for the operation of the said Fund. The contributions of the existing employees of the Commission who opt for pension and gratuity under these regulations in their Contributory Provident Fund Account and the accrued interest thereon shall be credited to their General (Non-contributory) provident Fund.

119. Pension Fund.—A pension and retirement benefit fund shall be created in the Commission from out of the accumulation of the Commission's contribution surrendered under these regulations and funds placed by the Commission from other sources as it deems fit.
